Shri K.V. Thomas, Advocate for the appellant.

CORAM : C.L. PANGARKAR, J.
19TH DECEMBER, 2007

It is stated by the learned Counsel for the appellants that the appellant's two sons have died in motor accident and, therefore, filed two separate claims before the Motor Accident Claims Tribunal.

A single decision was rendered by the MACT and two appeals were required to be preferred. However, inadvertently, one appeal could not be filed at the time the other appeal was filed, which was within limitation. He submits that the fist appeal which was filed came to be admitted.

In view of the fact that the first appeal in respect of another son is admitted, I see no difficulty in condoning the delay in filing the instant appeal. Hence, the delay is condoned. Place the matter for admission.

Civil Application stands disposed of as such.
